

Please find enclosed:

Tick if relevant

Charity Commission's/ Inland Revenue confirmation of charitable status

Summary of trust's objects/ Memorandum of Association

The minimum annual subscription of £60

The most recent set of audited accounts

Reasons for applying for a waiver:

The trust was granted charitable status less than 12 months ago

At the start of the current financial year, uncommitted trust reserves amounted to less than £1000

Get committed support and expert advice - join APT today!

Poplar Library, London, Heritage of London Operations

For more information contact

APT Co-ordinator
UK Association of Preservation Trusts
9th Floor Alhambra House
27 – 31 Charing Cross Road
London WC2H 0AU

Tel: 0207 930 1629
Email: apt@ahfund.org.uk
Fax: 0207 930 0295

Development Officer Wales
Tel/ Fax: 01974 821 570
Email: aptwales@btinternet.com

Web: www.ukapt.org.uk

The United Kingdom Association of Preservation Trusts (Charity no. 1027919) was set up in 1989 to act as a nationally representative body for building preservation trusts with assistance from the Architectural Heritage Fund. APT is funded and supported by the AHF, Cadw, English Heritage, Environment Wales, Historic Scotland, Department for Environment Northern Ireland and the Pilgrim Trust.

Photographs supplied with thanks by the AHF.

From rescue to regeneration

Get advice on historic building projects!

From rescue to regeneration

Get advice on historic building projects!

Do you need advice on whether your Building Preservation Trust is exempt from paying VAT?

Want the assistance of an experienced practitioner for help with a problem? If yes you should become a member of APT!

Front page pic: The Court 15 Back-to-Backs Project, the Midlands, Birmingham Conservation Trust

Top left: Strathpeffer Spa Pavilion, Scotland, Scottish Historic Buildings Trust

Middle: Old Belmont School, Old Belmont School Trust

Left: Sker House, Wales, Buildings at Risk Trust

What will you get from APT membership?

- The benefits of joining a nationwide organisation established to provide support for BPTs
- Access to the free and professional VAT advice scheme up to a value of £300
- Practice advisers scheme for one to-one help

Top: Strathpeffer Spa Pavilion, Scotland, Scottish Historic Buildings Trust

Middle: Old Belmont School, Old Belmont School Trust

Above: Sker House, Scotland, Buildings at Risk Trust

- Comprehensive Guidance Notes on how to set up and run a project
- Free advertising in bi-annual APT News and e-mail bulletins
- Discounted seminars and conferences
- You may also qualify for a free first year of membership if you have limited funds*

Throughout England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, nine APT Area Committees meet to share experiences, problems and solutions whilst providing help and encouragement to BPTs. Membership of APT allows you to become part of this significant network of contacts.

Who can join APT?

All charities with a primary object to preserve historic buildings are eligible to become members of APT. *The first year of membership is free for new charitable trusts working on their first project or to those with limited funds. The annual subscription is £60 thereafter.

Membership application form

Name of organisation

Contact for correspondence

Office held

Address

Daytime telephone number

Fax number

Email

Nominated Area Committee

Date of confirmation of charitable status

Registered charity/ Inland Revenue no.

